DOES NOT WANT WAR.

President Diaz Talks of Relations Between Mexico and Guatemala.

New York, May 14.—In the course of a lengthy review in the City of Mexico, published here Monday, President Diaz gave a statement of the feeling of Mexico toward Guatemala and his ideas for remedying the condition prevailing in some of the Central American republics.

"Mexico," he said, "has, throughout all this trouble with Guatemala, which came so near forcing us into war, maintained the attitude of a friendly power. That attitude is still maintained. We do not want to shed blood to show the Guatemalan government the error of their ways, and will not resort to that extreme measure unless some overt act or insult be committed which will demand the infliction by Mexico of a short, sharp punishment.

"If it becomes necessary to have war, we will make it a very brief one. Mexico's present wonderful development and progress must not be hindered by a long-drawn out conflict. The blow, if struck, will be hard and quick."

President Diaz then reviewed the events leading up to the present differences with Guatemala down to the withdrawal of the Mexican minister, "not," he said, "with the idea of severing diplomatic relations, but to get him out of the way of receiving any insult from that government which would compel Mexico to administer a deserved punishment by force of arms. There the matter rests, for the time. That is why there is no war. It is only a temporary condition, however."

Girl Dies as Result of Assault.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 14—Miss Navada Taylor, the young girl who was criminally assaulted by Ed Johnson, a negro, January 28, 1906, and for which crime the negro was lynched by a mob on the county bridge two months later, died Sunday night at her childhood home in Findlay, O., of nervous trouble, brought about by the awful crime. Miss Taylor was the 19-year-old daughter of the superintendent of Forest Hill cemetery, and the crime was committed at the entrance to the cemetery.

Was Killed in Drunken Fight.

Death resulted from a blow on the neck with a small wooden stool in the hands of Felkins.

The leading newspapers there declare that the Anglo-Japanese understanding is the father and the Anglo-France agreement the mother of this auspicous progeny which needs only the inclusion of Russia to guarantee absolute peace in the Orient.

Report Not Quite Accurate.

Tokio, May 13.—The report from Berlin that the United States and Japan were negotiating a treaty regarding interests in the far east, is not quite accurate. It is explained that the matter being arranged is merely a demarkation of the rights of the two countries in the Philippines, Korea and Manchuria.

MERRY SHRINERS IN AWFUL TRAIN WRECK

Fatal Accident In Sand Wastes on Southern Pacific.

THIRTY ARE REPORTED KILLED

Train Going at Terrific Speed Runs Into Defective Switch and Is Completely Wrecked—Wreckage Afterwards Took Fire.

Santa Barbara, Cal., May 14.—While hurrying northward over the coast line of the Southern Pacific railroad Saturday afternoon, homeward bound, after a week of fraternizing in Los Angeles, 145 Shriners, of Ismalia Temple, of Buffalo, and Rajah Temple, of Reading, Pa., with their families and friends, were hurled into the midst of death, when their special train, running 50 miles an hour, struck a defective switch at Honda, a lonely station on the sand wastes of the Pacific Beach, derailing the train, smashing the coaches into flinders, killing thirty-one almost instantly, and injuring more than a score.

The wreck occurred at 2:15 o'clock, one hour and forty-five minutes after the conclave visitors forming a merry party, had spent all the morning sightseeing in Santa Barbara.

There was no warning of the impending danger. The special plunged down the defective switch, and in an instant the big locomotive, baggage car, diner and Pullman, coupled with it, were hurled together in a huge pile of wreckage. The engine shot forward on the broken track, tearing up the rails and ties and twisting the huge iron spans into fish hooks. The baggage car half buried itself in the sand on the right side of the locomotive. It was smashed almost to kindling wood.

The dining car, in which were thirty-two persons, eating their noonday meal, leaped into the air, was thrown directly on top of the demolished locomotive. Nearly every person in this coach was instantly killed.

Scores were scalded by steam escaping from disconnected pipes in the kitchen on the diner.

The terror and turmoil of the scene was indescribable. Many of those who escaped death by the first impact were crushed by the rear coaches hurled upon the wreckage.

The wreckage took fire from the coals of the engine, but was extinguished in a few minutes by the passengers who escaped injury.

It was some time after the wreck had occurred before a word of it reached the outside world. As soon as one of the uninjured trainmen could make his way to the station, word of the wreck was flashed to railroad headquarters and at San Luis Obispo. Special trains were arranged for, and a corps of physicians and nurses gathered hurriedly and were sent to the scene of the wreck.

The accident was one of the most disastrous that has ever occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad.

First of Wreck News Received.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 14—A dispatch received here discloses how the first news of the wreck at Honda reached the railroad officials. It is said that when the wreck occurred, Conductor Jones climbed the nearest pole and with a telegraph instrument provided for such purposes, succeeded in tapping one of the dispatcher's wires. Connecting this with the San Luis Obispo office he told of the wreck. The men at the other end of the line doubted his story, believing some one was playing a prank, but consternation followed when, in confirmation of his identity, the conductor read a copy of his last order. The news was immediately sent to Santa Barbara and other points.

San Francisco, May 14.—Three trains bearing Shriners arrived on Sunday from the scene of the wreck. An excursion train containing 21 Shriners which had been a few miles behind the wreck train, arrived Sunday night. The train was switched around the wreck, and the passengers agree in the statement that it was the most deplorable sight that they ever witnessed.

Dr. Ware, of Cincinnati, who was the first physician to reach the scene, arrived Sunday night and told a graphic story of the terrible scenes that he witnessed. The most pathetic incident was the death of a bride and groom at almost the same instant, each believing that the other still lived. L. N Ellenbogen and his bride were members of the excursion party, and were thrown from the car on opposite sides of the track as it reeled over the ground. Both were mortally injured, but retained consciousness and exhibited remarkable bravery. The wife's first thought was for her husband and the husband's first thought was for his wife.

"Tell my wife that I am all right," murmured Ellenbogen to the physician. "Give her my love and let me know how she is."

Mrs. Ellenbogen in return sent a message of love to her husband with the assurance that she was all right. Before the physician could carry another message, both passed away.

Dr. Ware was compelled to use drift wood for pillows and cut up sheets on the train for bandages.

H. Thornton, the head of a large party of Shriners from Meridian, Miss., who came through from Los Angeles on the second section of the wrecked Shriner special, is at a hotel here. He is a railroad man of many years' experience, and is not satisfied that the disaster was caused by a defective switch. According to his statement, the sleepers were not badly affected by the wreck and are largely intact. They were flung in every direction, one of them ahead of the engine, but they did not collapse. The San Francisco members of the Mystic Shrine consisting of Islam Temple, and their wives, and daughters, who were in attendance at the conclave of the order in Los Angeles, returned here and were the first to arrive since the fearful train wreck at Hondo.

House Dynamited; Four Killed.

Ruston, La., May 14.—Unknown persons set off a charge of dynamite or some other high explosive here under the house of Sam Cook, a negro, Sunday morning, blowing the house to pieces and killing Cook and four other negroes sleeping in a front room. Four negroes said to have been sleeping in another part of the house, escaped. The entire town was shaken by the explosion and for a time much excitement prevailed. There is, as yet, no clew to the perpetrators, but a coroner's jury was impaneled soon after the explosion and is making every effort to get at the bottom of the crime.

The question of paramount importance to come up at this meeting will be the proposition to divide the present diocese into a northern and a southern diocese.

Columbus, O., May 14.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States will convene here Thursday, when reports of its messionary and other work will be received. For the first time since the vote for reunion, delegates from the Cumberland Presbyterian churches will be seated in the assembly as delegates, and the union of the two denominations will be complete.

He struck his foot against a steam auger and the auger bored a hole into his limb just above the ankle, penetrating several veins and arteries and chipping off a piece of bone.

STRIKE HAS CAUSED LOSS OF $5,000,000

Longshoremen's Strike Is Paralyzing Business.

THEY STILL CONTINUE FIRM

Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, Has Been Called Upon to Endeavor to Bring About a Peace Conference.

New York, May 14.—There is no change for the better in the dock situation caused by the strike of the longshoremen.

Freight is piling up at an enormous rate at all the docks, and apparently the steamship companies have but few men to move it. The blockade is causing much inconvenience to shippers and merchants, transportation companies and strikers are losing thousands of dollars daily. The loss to shipping interests alone is said to aggregate $5,000,000 thus far while the loss in wages to the longshoremen also runs into seven figures.

Neither side has thus far shown any disposition to surrender, but the prediction was made that one side or the other must soon give way as the strike is paralyzing the ocean traffic of the port, a condition that merchants cannit long permit to continue.

According to the strike leaders, 30,000 stevedores are on strike in Manhattan, Brooklyn and Hoboken, and considering the number of men out, the strike is remarkable for the lack of disorder. There have been a few scenes of disorders, but the rows have been of no great magnitude, and have been easily controlled by the police.

The civic federation, despite the rebuffs of last week, will this week renew its efforts to settle the strike by arbitration. In this connection it is stated that Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has been called upon to endeavor to bring about a peace conference.

Joseph Bryan, of Richmond, Va., presided and the invocation was offered by Bishop Randolph, of the diocese of southern Virginia. MONDAY'S WORK AT THE STATE CAPITOL

New Jacksonville Charter Bill Passed Both Houses.

MANY IMPORTANT MEASURES

Were Introduced and Disposed Of, Including Many Bills on Third Reading—Both Branches of Legislature Were Busy During the Entire Day.

Two sessions of the House and an extended afternoon session of the Senate, each busy ones, marked the first day of the Legislative week. It was a great day for local bills, especially affecting municipalities, and when messages from the House came over to the Senate local bills in number went through in a rush.

Prominent among them was the new Jacksonville charter bill, which passed through both houses as quick as the Fort Brooke proposition of Saturday.

The municipality of the city of South Jacksonville was created, so far as the Senate was concerned, in a very few minutes after the bill was introduced by Senator Buckman.

The municipality of Fort Brooke was declared abolished by the Crane Senate bill of this afternoon.

The national constitutional conventional ideas of the Socialist member of the House, Mr. Pettigrew, were very effectually killed in the Senate.

It was nearly 7 o'clock when the Senate adjourned and this body will Tuesday and in the future meet at 9:30.

The "third house" is in session tonight, which is an event of every session, and well attended by members of the first and second, and by citizens generally.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The Senate was called to order at 4 p. m., President Harris in the chair. Twenty-eight Senators answered to roll call. The following new bills were introduced:

By Mr. Buckman—Relating to burglary, with explosives.

By Mr. Buckman—Amending Section 3, Chapter 4971, laws of Florida, entitled to an act for prevention of cruelty to children and animals and to rescue children from immoral surroundings.

By Mr. McCreary—For the relief of A. J. DaCosta of Alachua county.

By Mr. McCreary—To amend Section 3752, Article 12, general statutes of Florida, relating to game.

By Mr. Buckman—Authorizing any city or town to levy a special tax for the support of a free public library and to authorize such city or town to enter into obligation for the support thereof.

Senate bill No. 394, by committee on finance and taxation—An act for assessment and collection of revenue; 200 copies ordered printed.

By Mr. Broome—Prescribing location of monument in Lake City commemorative of the battle of Olustee and the officers and soldiers engaged therein; 200 copies ordered printed, and made special order for Thursday at 10:30 a. m.

By Mr. Hudson—Regulating width of tires of certain kinds of vehicles, hauling freight or passengers on hard or improved roads, etc.

The Senate then proceeded to consideration of House concurrent resolution No. 25—Requesting Congress to call a convention for the purpose of proposing an amendment to the constitution of election of United States Senators by direct vote. On motion of Senator Beard, the resolution was indefinitely postponed.

House concurrent resolution No. 26—Relative to proposing amendment to constitution of the United States to provide for income and inheritance tax, was also indefinitely postponed on motion of Senator Beard, chairman of committee of constitutional amendments.

New Towns Incorporated.

House bill No. 476, by Mr. Watson of Dade—Declaring town of Dania, in Dade, to be a legally incorporated town, was read and on motion of Senator Hudson, the rules were waived, bill read second and third times and passed 28 to 0.

House bill No. 482 by Mr. Lassiter of Washington—Incorporating town of Vernon and providing for election of its officers, was read and on motion of Senator Clark, the rules were waived, bill read second and third time and passed 28 to 0.

House bill No. 471, by Mr. Neel of Jackson—To legalize incorporation of town of Cypress in Jackson county was read and on motion of Senator West of the Fourth, the rules were waived, bill read second and third times and passed 28 to 0.

House memorial No. 16, by Mr. Lassiter—Requesting Congress for appropriation for improving Holmes river in Washington county, was read and on motion of Senator Clark, the rules were waived, memorial read second and third time and passed 25 to 0.

Jacksonville Charter.

JUDSON JOTTINGS.

Judson, May 14.—Dr. O. S. Clyatt is having his office torn down and is moving it to Trenton, and says that he will have his dwelling house moved as soon as they get his drug store put up. Dr. Clyatt will be greatly missed, as he has a very large practice. Some other good doctor would do well to come to Judson.

Mrs. R. S. Tucker went to Newberry yesterday. She will visit relatives this week.

W. J. Watson and wife, who went south to spend the summer, have returned. He reports it very dry in South Florida, nothing much being grown on account of the drouth, and he says that the orange trees are dying.

We have had some fine showers here, and the crops are coming out nicely. The farmers are harvesting their oat crops, which are very light headed, as they made mostly without rain.

DON'T PUT IT OFF LONGER.

Get Rid of That Indigestion at Once by Using Mi-o-na.

Either through slackness or carelessness hundreds of people slowly poison themselves by chronic indigestion. By neglecting to cure at once any sluggishness of the important organs of digestion the system is filled with fermenting and decaying food that results in sick headaches, heartburn, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, specks before the eyes, sleeplessness, nervous troubles and the many other symptoms that are the direct result of indigestion.

The want of a perfectly safe yet effective cure for indigestion and stomach troubles in their many forms was felt up to the time of the successful investigations that resulted in the production of Mi-o-na stomach tablets. They quickly cure the worst cases of indigestion, and the pain and distress which are often felt after meals disappear in a very few days—such is the wonderful curative power of Mi-o-na.

The old-fashioned medicines for stomach troubles merely digest the food, while Mi-o-na strengthens the digestive organs so that they soon become able to care for the food that is eaten.

Miona stomach tablets cost but 50 cents a box and do more real good than a dozen boxes of the ordinary digestive tablets. J. W. McCollum gives an absolute, unqualified guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na fails to cure.

Grand Jury to Investigate.

Atlanta, May 13.—The grand jury will probably meet this week and take up the case of Fred Bush, who is held in a $10,000 bond on the charge of sending an infernal machine to the home of Mrs. Julia McCarthy, 447 East Georgia avenue, where it exploded, wrecked the house, and came near killing Mrs. McCarthy. The chrage against Bush is assault with intent to murder, and Solicitor Hill says the sending of a deadly bomb to any one makes a typical case of an assault with intent to murder, if the bomb explodes and injures a person. The punishment in Georgia for an assault with intent to murder is imprisonment in the penitentiaryy from two to ten years.

THE CHANGE OF LIFE

Sensible Advice to Women from Mrs. Henry Lee, Mrs. Fred Certia and Mrs. Pinkham.

MRS HENRY LEE MRS. FRED CERTIA

Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms.

This is the most critical period of her whole existence and every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain.

When her system is in a deranged condition or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active and with a host of nervous irritations make life a burden. At this time also cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, melancholia, dread of impending evil, palpitation of the heart, irregularities, constipation and dizziness are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when this great change may be expected.

Mrs. Fred Certia, 1014 So. Lafayette Street, So. Bend, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the ideal medicine for women who are passing through Change of Life. For several months I suffered from hot flashes, extreme nervousness, headache and sleeplessness. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I had made up my mind there was no help for me until I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, my bad symptoms ceased, and it brought me safely through the danger period, built up my system and I am in excellent health. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound unsurpassed for women during this trying period of life."

Mrs. Henry Lee, 60 Winter Street, New Haven, Conn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"After suffering untold misery for three years during Change of Life I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wrote you of my condition, and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and followed your advice, and to-day I am well and happy. I can now walk anywhere and work as well as anyone, and for years previous I had tried but could not get around without help. I consider your medicine a sovereign balm for suffering women."

Women passing through this critical period should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If there is anything about your case you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. It is free and has guided thousands to health.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health, actually thousands of women, you cannot well say without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." It is your duty to yourself and family to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Having taken your wonderful "Cascarets" for three months and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to "Cascarets" for their wonderful composition. A VALUABLE PRESCRIPTION.

The average person does not realize how much the bodily health depends upon the proper action of the kidneys and bladder, nor how widespread disorders of those organs are. It is quite safe to say that they give physicians as many sleepless nights on account of their patients as do any of the others, and perhaps it would not be too much to say that, directly and indirectly, they are chargeable with as much sickness as all the other organs of the human body combined. As a result of a vast amount of careful study, many physicians are now using with great success in the treatment of disorders traceable to the kidneys and bladder a prescription composed of ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Buchu, ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Uva Ursi, 1 oz. Amet Cordial, ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Liverwort and 15 ozs. of water. This is administered in doses of a tablespoonful three times a day and while the treatment is continued, which, in order that all impurities be eliminated from the system, should be for a month, the patient is advised to drink large quantities of water. The materials called for by the prescription are carried in stock by every first-class pharmacy.

WOMEN AS DEPUTY SHERIFFS.

New Hampshire Enforcing Laws Regarding Cruelty to Children.

Nashua, N. H., May 14.—The unique experiment of the state of New Hampshire to secure better enforcement of the laws regarding cruelty to animals and children in appointing two women as deputy sheriffs, armed with all the authority usually vested in deputy sheriffs, seems to have fully demonstrated its success by the report being made by Mrs. Jennie P. Fowers, of Keene, and Mrs. M. Jennie Kendall, of Nashua.

Armed with a camera and a revolver of heavy caliber, and thoroughly versed in the law covering her powers and duties, Mrs. Powers has gone fearlessly about her work and in the past year has made 16 arrests, killed 41 horses and caused numerous prosecutions.

Mrs. Kendall has confined most of her activities in Nashua and its immediate vicinity where she has caused many arrests to be made for cruelty to children and animals.

Killed Her Son-In-Law.

Huntsville, Ala., May 14.—Angered because her son-in-law, Frank Albright, came home intoxicated and run the family away from home, by his violent actions, Mrs. Mattie Connally killed him by shooting him with a shotgun, as he lay in a drunken stupor on his bed. The tragedy occurred in Maysville Saturday night, and on the evidence secured by the coroner's jury, Mrs. Connally has been lodged in jail, and Charlie Chadwick, a 16-year-old boy, has been put in jail as an accessory. Albright was a merchant, about 30 years old.

Gomez May Leave Liberals.

Havana, May 14.—It is reported that Jose Miguel Gomez has decided to leave the liberal party, join the republican party of which he was formerly the head and become the republican candidate for the presidency. This move, it is expected, will clear the political situation by removing the friction which has prevailed between Gomez and Zayas. Their rivalry for the liberal nomination for the presidency has almost disrupted the party.

With its companions, heart burn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Canthrarides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Secretary Taft says, "If the Panama Canal is not completed within eight years, I shall be disappointed."

Possibly Mr. Roosevelt could command more popular attention for his refusal to be a candidate if he could put it in the form of an epigram.

Iceland wants independence, and an inquisitive contemporary wants to know what Iceland would do as an independent State. One thing she could do would be to keep cool, no matter what happened in the rest of the world.

Governor Pennypacker recently assured the public that not a dollar had been expended unnecessarily in the Pennsylvania State capitol. From the amount of graft being turned up, it looks as though Contractor Sanderson must rank as an expensive necessity.

Our big importers are objecting to the special privileges granted to German exporters and the administration therefore is continuing its policy of secrecy about the agreement with Germany. The people are demanding information and not secrecy about the tariff that protects the trusts.

Anybody who wants to rent a good farm in touch with a good market can do so at an expense of twenty-five cents an acre per year. The Government has 75,000 acres of such land on the Uintah Indian Reservation in Southern Utah that it wants to dispose of and is looking for settlers. They do not have to live on the land as in the case of a homestead entry. Those interested can get full details as to securing the farms from the Commissioner of Indian affairs at Washington.

Gen. Bell, chief of Staff of the Army, has given an explanation of the rumored increase of the Cuban Army, reports of which have been going the rounds of the press lately. Gen. Bell says that the proposal to raise the Cuban Army to 12,000 men is not an American scheme and did not originate with the American administration either in Havana or at Washington. There was a proposal to raise the strength of the Cuban Army just before the intervention of the United States. Naturally when the change of government came, there was nothing more done with the plan, but it was submitted to the American War Department for technical criticism. This was given and some suggestions of a professional nature were made and since then there has been nothing done in the matter. But Gen. Bell says that the plan meets with his approval as putting in the hands of the next Government in Cuba a strong force that can deal promptly and effectually with an insurrection if it occurs. It is in this connection that the scheme is of interest to this country, for it indicates that when the United States leaves the island, it intends to see that the incoming Government is seated strongly in the saddle and has force sufficient at its disposal to put down lawlessness and disorder with a strong hand.

RAILROAD BLOCKADE.

The freight blockade on some of the Western trunk lines is getting worse rather than improving. A dispatch from Rock Springs, Wyo., reports that nearly 4,500 loaded cars are tied up on one division of the Union Pacific. Only perishable freight is being sent forward from Laramie for the West and a great number of loaded cars are being held up at that point to relieve the congestion on the divisions further west. The policy of running railroads by the frenzied financiers of Wall Street does not seem to be to the advantage of the patrons of the railroads however much the stockholders may benefit. As the Union Pacific pays 10 per cent dividends on the common stock there is evident need of competition and a cutting of rates to a reasonable basis. Yet this same corporation is fighting the 2-cent passenger rate in Nebraska and other States when it can evidently well afford to reduce both freight and passenger rates.

EXPRESS RATES REDUCED.

The United States Express Co. rate of $1 per 100 pounds on cut flowers from New Jersey points to New York City has been reduced by the Interstate Commerce Commission to 60 cents per 100 pounds. This reauction was brought about through the complaint of the Society of American Florists, and other organizations, or individuals, elsewhere can obtain the same results if the express charges can be shown to be unreasonable. This cut in express rates is the first ordered under the new railroad rate law and if not set aside by the courts will undoubtedly lead to other reductions, for it is notorious that nearly all express rates now charged are unreasonable.

For the past few years the name of Hon. Frank Adams of Jasper has been mentioned in connection with the next race for United States Senator. He is recognized as one of Florida's leading men in business as well as in the political world. He has been a prominent factor in the up-building of his section of the State, and for twelve years has been the able representative of Hamilton county in the State Senate. He has been honored with the presidency of that distinguished body of lawmakers, and made a most excellent officer. He is a good, honest and honorable gentleman, pleasing in address, an able debater, and one of the best posted men on State matters to be found anywhere. His friends, and he has them in every nook and corner in Florida, will insist that he enter the race for United States Senator, and they believe he can and will be nominated. He will receive the solid and enthusiastic support of this (his home) section of Florida the very day he announces, and as he is a good campaigner, a pleasant, affable gentleman, he will gain strength as the campaign progresses. Although his candidacy has been mentioned for some time, he has never, so far as we know, decided to enter the race, but as the time for the next primary is fast approaching, an announcement from him may be expected before a great while.—Live Oak Democrat.

With the coming of the summer season, the Department of Agriculture is again busy on what perhaps is one of the most important phases of American development, namely the good roads movement. This is a matter that should keenly interest every citizen of the United States, for it is the thing in which this country is the most backward of any civilized power on the globe, and it is one of the things that will do more than anything else to foster rural development, bring the farmer and the townsman close together and make the country the most desirable quarter to live in. Of course, the department cannot go out and build roads all over the country, but it has a well-equipped force of experts and is ready and able to furnish the best scientific advice on road building for nothing to any community that wants it. The department even goes farther and puts down a mile or so of road as an object lesson wherever it can and the manufacturers of road machinery furnish the machinery free for these demonstration stretches of road. Scientific road building is one of the best investments of time and money that any community can make, and it would be a good thing if every county in the country would apply to the Secretary of Agriculture during the present season for such aid as the general Government can and will give in starting the good road movement.

With her thousands of acres in fruits and vegetables, there is no need for the people of Florida to send North for their canned goods. Canning factories should be established throughout the State, so that the surplus fruits and vegetables could be preserved until the price warranted the sale. These canning establishments pay handsome dividends on the capital invested, so we trust that the day is not far distant when our capitalists will awake to a realization of the many benefits that accrue from this one particular industry.—Titusville Advocate.

But if Taft does take the Presidential chair, they'll certainly have to knock off the arms, and bolster up the framework.

It is said Foraker agrees with Boss Cox. Why of course he does, such birds of a feather always flock together.

BLONDIN AT NIAGARA.

His Famous Walk on a Slack Rope Over the Cataract.

WITH A MAN UPON HIS BACK.

The Sensations of Henry M. Colcord, Who Was Perched on the Acrobat's Body, as Described by Himself—The Severed Guy Rope Incident.

Charles Blondin, the French rope-walker, though he died in bed at a ripe old age in 1897, performed feats that no other man has ever dared emulate. There are few things in the way of daring that some one will not repeat, but Blondin was the cleverest as well as the most venturesome of his profession. His feats were tasks too great for the skill as well as the courage of his imitators.

Blondin's great trip over Niagara falls in 1859 was the most startling sensation of that time, a thing talked of for a generation afterward. It was witnessed by a crowd of thousands. The present king of England, then Prince of Wales, saw Blondin while on his tour through the United States. He once declared that the sight of Blondin crossing the falls on a swaying rope made a greater impression upon him than any incident of his journey.

Though Blondin crossed on the rope several times, his greatest exploit was when he carried over on his back another man. To the spectators, unused to the acrobat's feats, it seemed impossible for him to keep his swaying footing with the burden on his back. Large sums were laid that he would fail. Blondin's own feeling, however, was one of complete confidence.

But the feelings of the man on his back! That man had never walked a slack rope, had never been suspended in such a dreadful position before, and he had to depend for his safety absolutely on the movements of another. Many years afterward this man, Henry M. Colcord of Chicago, gave an account of his experience to a newspaper.

"You ask what it feels like to be twelve hundred feet in midair over a raging torrent," he said. "I cannot describe it better than by saying that the first sensation was an overwhelming one, in which it was hard to separate awe from fear. Then there came what may best be termed an absolute cessation of all feeling. Before starting from the shore Blondin gave me that injunction which almost every mother has given to the boy at her knee when giving him his first lesson in life.

"'Look up, Harry!' he said.

"My arms were about his neck, while my legs were slung in hooks at his waist. Out we went over that horrible gulf. I heard the roar of the water below and the hum which ran through the crowd of 100,000 spectators. As we cleared the brink the hum ceased. There was not one person perhaps in that vast throng who did not feel a greater strain than was ours.

"Unable to resist, I stole one glance down at the black waters. It seemed for an instant as if I were poised above the entire universe. There was a feeling of immensity such as I had never felt before and have never felt since. Then I looked up.

"Blondin walked on steadily, pausing for one brief moment at each point where the guy ropes joined the main cable. The line was a trifle steadier at those places and gave him a chance to assure himself of his balance. There was a wide space in the middle of the rope to which it had not been possible to attach guy lines.

"At the last resting place before we reached this slender, swaying span Blondin said to me:

"'Harry, you are no longer Colcord; you are Blondin. Until I clear this place be a part of me, mind, body and soul. If I sway, sway with me. Do not attempt to do any balancing yourself. If you do, we shall both go down to our death.'

"I had dismounted while he was talking to me and stood with one foot on the line and both hands on his shoulders. I climbed back into my perch, and Blondin started across the unstable part of the line. I had cleared my mind of all feeling save one. I tried to think that instead of being poised in midair, with nothing but a manila rope between me and destruction, I was shut up with Blondin in a confined space where the thought of a fall was farcical.

"Blondin swung to the right and then to the left. Each time I went with him as though we were molded into one piece with immovable parts.

"I knew afterward that the line beneath his feet was swaying horribly and that to the people on the shore it seemed that time and again our bodies were parallel to the rushing Niagara rapids below. Blondin's marvelous skill, however, and the precision with which he manipulated his pole brought us each time to the upright.

"The unprotected center was passed, all but a few feet. Blondin was now running just as a boy runs in order the better to keep his balance when walking a railroad track. We were nearing the point where the joining place of the first guy line from the opposite shore offered us a moment's breathing space. Blondin's foot was planted on the knot which joined the lines.

"My breath came naturally again. At that instant the rope was jerked from beneath his feet. How he caught it again and saved us I never knew. Before I could realize much of anything he was running again. Some gambler interested pecuniarily in our deaths had cut the guy rope, hoping to hurl us to the river.

"He did not dare repeat the attempt, and when the second point of connection was reached we rested safely. Blondin stood there like a man of marble, though the agony in his mind had brought great beads of sweat to his brow.

"We reached the shore finally, but before we were well there we could see the people in the crowd, even at a distance from the edge of the gulf, begin to stretch out their arms as if they would draw us in from the peril.

"What the feeling of men was may be shown by the action of the then president of the New York Central railroad. He presented me with a check for $1,000 for crossing with Blondin and then offered me a like amount if I would promise never to do it again."

Knew Him Too Well.

The late President Chester A. Arthur, although he was a man of warm friendships, had a high sense of personal dignity that would brook no undue familiarities. A lifelong friend of Mr. Arthur, who had accompanied him on one of his hunting trips, was telling an acquaintance some of the incidents of the hunt.

"I know it's the general impression," he said, "that Mr. Arthur is a cold, self centered sort of man, but it isn't true. He is one of the most genial and companionable of men when you become well acquainted with him. I thought I already knew him pretty well, but I came to understand him better while on that trip than ever before."

"I suppose you know him well enough now to call him by his first name," ventured the other.

"On the contrary," was the rejoinder, "I know him well enough not to call him by his first name."—Youth's Companion.

Desert Plants.

Plants of the desert, as a rule, possess few leaves, the cactus, for instance, being mostly spines. There is a very good reason for the lack of leaves in desert plants. The object is to check the transferation of moisture by offering as small a surface as possible to the dry air. For the same reason the roots of desert plants usually run deep into the soil so that they can suck up all the available moisture. In some instances the leaves assume a vertical position and thus avoid the direct rays of the burning desert sun. On the other hand, the leaves of trees in very wet countries are provided with points—such as the maple—from which the rain drops off. Were the leaves flatter the rain would collect and make them rot.

SPECIAL OCCASION.

Southern Baptist Convention and Auxiliary Societies, Richmond, Va., May 16-21, 1907.

On account of the above occasion we announce round-trip rate of one fare, plus twenty-five cents in the sale of tickets to Richmond, Va., tickets at this rate being on sale from May 13th until 16th inclusive, with final limit to leave Richmond fifteen days from date of sale. However, by complying with certain conditions and upon payment of fee of $1.00, an extension of this limit to June 17th may be procured.

The Seaboard has been declared the Official Route for delegates to this meeting. Those having the matter in hand were evidently guided in reaching the decision to name the line by some of the attractive features of the service, noticeable among these being the double daily service with through coaches and sleeping cars and then the following: Our people, with an idea of affording delegates to this and other conventions held in Richmond, an opportunity for visiting the Jamestown Exposition, perfected an arrangement whereby the return portion of tickets reading from Richmond are honored from Portsmouth, Virginia, without additional charge. This alone certainly makes the Seaboard especially attractive.

There is a movement now on foot to have the Florida Baptists assemble in Jacksonville, moving from there on the same train—one might say in a body. This, too, will make the trip more pleasant.

MEXICAN MINE HORROR.

Reported that Ninety Lives Have Been Lost—Bodies Recovered.

Mexico City, May 14.—According to a dispatch which was received from the city of Terreon, Coahuila, Sunday night, 90 lives were lost in a fire which occurred in the Cornethas shaft of the Terneras group of mines in the town of Velardena, state of Dusnago.

The fire started early Friday night in an abandoned shaft. At the time there were 107 men working in another part of the mine, and from what can be learned at this time, but 17 of them escaped.

Thirty-five bodies have been recovered according to latest reports.

The origin of the fire is supposed to have been due to the carelessness of a miner who was smoking a cigarette in an abondoned shaft, through which he was passing. This section of the mine, it is said, was exceedingly dry and it is believed that the man in throwing away his half-burned cigarette, allowed it to drop into a bunch of oiled waste. A blaze immediately resulted, and this quickly conveyed itself to the adjoining timber.

Owing to the remoteness of the region it has been difficult to receive details of the catastrophe and a list of the dead is unavailable at this time.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapaciated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by all druggists.

Wine Growers Make Protest.

Bezieres, France, May 14—A giant demonstration of wine growers was held here Sunday, 150,000 persons from all parts of the south attending and demanding that the government take measures to remedy the distress arising from over-production of wines and the extensive sale of wines manufactured from grape refuse and sugar. The crisis is similar to that caused by the overproduction of coffee in Brazil and is growing in intensity.

New York, May 14.—The labborers of the Havemeyer Sugar refinery in Williamsburg, who went on strike last Monday for an increase of three cents an hour, have decided to accept a compromise of one and a half cents an hour offered by the refinery. The men had been receiving 15 cents an hour, and demanded 18 cents.
